D. STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel this enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation shall occur when you give written Notice of Cancellation at the address of the School shown on the top of the first page of this Enrollment Agreement. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, telegram, fax, or email. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed, with postage prepaid.

The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this Agreement. You will be given two Notices of Cancellation forms to use at the first day of class, but you can use any written notice that you wish.

If the School has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you shall return them to the School within thirty (30) days following the date of your Notice of Cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the 30-day period, the School may deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation.

If you cancel this agreement, the School will refund any money that you paid, less any deduction for equipment not timely returned in good condition, within 30 days after your Notice of Cancellation is received. If you have received federal student financial aid funds, you are entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

E. WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSE

You have the right to withdraw from a course of instruction at any time. If you withdraw from the course of instruction after the period allowed for cancellation of the agreement, the school will remit a refund less STRF fees, if applicable, within 30 days following your withdrawal. You are obligated to pay only for educational services rendered and for equipment received by you. The tuition refund shall be pro rata based on the period of attendance (i.e. the amount you paid for instruction multiplied by fraction, the numerator of which number of hours of instruction which you have not received but for which you paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction for which you have paid).

If the amount that you have paid is more than the amount that you owe for the time you attended, then a refund will be made within 30 days of withdrawal. If the amount that you owe is more than the amount that you have already paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it. The STRF Fee is non-refundable.

F. NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION

The transferability of credits you earn at the College of Instrument Technology is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the diploma, or certificate you earn in this educational program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the credits, diploma, or certificate(s) that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending the College of Instrument Technology to determine if your credits, diploma or certificate will transfer.

G. GROUNDS FOR CANCELLATION/TERMINATION BY THE SCHOOL

Any student who fails to meet all financial obligations to the school is subject to termination by the director. Students with two unexcused absences in any given month will receive written notification of academic probation for a period of one month. Any unexcused absences during such probationary period will be cause for interruption of the student's training program.

H. DISCLAIMER OF EMPLOYMENT GUARANTEE

While the School offers Placement Assistance, the School cannot, in anyway, guarantee employment after the student has successfully completed the program of study.

Students are encouraged to use professional Employment Agencies whose only job is to carefully match the student's skills, qualifications, and preferences with possible job openings with the highest salary.

While the College is a school, not an employment agency, and does not guarantee employment, every reasonable effort will be made to help graduates learn how to find suitable employment.

I. CONSENT TO AUDIO AND VIDEO RECORDING

Be advised that AUDIO and VIDEO recording may be in progress without further notification.

Entering these premises diminishes your expectation to privacy (from CIT management). CIT management retains their (and your) expectation to privacy. You retain your expectation that no one other than CIT management (their affiliates and authorized users) is recording you or violating your privacy.

Furthermore, to assure the quality of our instruction and to develop video training tapes for future classes & training, the School uses a variety of multimedia to record instructional lectures, seminars, and events. All classes may be subject to photography, videotaping, other imaging, and audio recording for use by CIT for training and marketing. You agree that we are allowed to do so without any additional consideration, remuneration, or notification.

J. STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program, or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

It is important that you keep copies of the enrollment agreement, financial aid papers, receipts or any other information that documents the monies paid to the school.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or the Division within 30-days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30-days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act. However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.
